

CHC33015 CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

Skilling Queenslanders for Work
Caboolture Neighbourhood Centre

COMMENCING 14th of October 2019

Learning in life for a chance to change

Course Description

Individual Support (Aged/Disability Care) offers a unique career path where you are able to give back to the community and help others. If you can see yourself providing person-centred support with discretion and in a non-judgemental environment, this is the course for you.

This course offers support through to completion of placement and could lead to paid employment.

Students must complete the 120 hours of mandatory work experience in order to gain their qualification.
